Wintersburg Presbyterian Church (WPC) is a family-oriented, multi-generational church with over 110 years of history. The congregation is 95% Asian and our church campus is located in Santa Ana, CA. Our church body is made up of about 500 members, spread across all age groups, and the vast majority of our members are involved in small group ministries. WPC is unique because the culture of our church is characterized by mutual respect and faithful service. This enables our church to graciously embrace one another in loving community regardless of age. We have two English language Sunday morning services with a blend of contemporary and traditional elements each week and host one evangelistic outreach program each month. We also have one Japanese language Sunday morning service led by a Japanese speaking director. WPC has programs to reach Japanese nationals (Save Japan Ministries), and our Lighthouse Ministry provides showers, food, and other necessities to the local homeless. WPC also has an active Sports Ministry that has seen significant success in bringing new families to church. A new gymnasium and multipurpose facility, currently under construction, will significantly aid our efforts. In addition, WPC sends many short-term missions teams to Japan, Thailand (through Zoe Missions) and Mexico (house building, youth missions) and supports full-time missionary families in Japan. WPC holds strongly to biblical principles and has a conservative view of social issues. We are committed to remaining ministerially in the world, but not of the world.
